Accomplishing "Far More than Simply Winning Reasonable Raises" *

Our latest collective bargaining report features landmark contracts that public employee unions' members achieved through 18 months of escalating worksite, community and political activism. Click here to learn more about the groundbreaking agreements and labor coalition leaders' coordinated efforts to secure them.

Demanding Local and Statewide Action to "Fund Our Future" *

Activists in affiliated local unions once again joined their students, labor allies and community advocates to demand equity in public PreK-12 and higher education. Click here to watch and share the recent "March for Our Classrooms" through the streets of New Haven.

Union Benefits for the Mind and Body

AFT Connecticut's professional development department in late April coordinated an expanded version of our popular mindfulness course for all members of affiliated local unions. Click here for photos of participants learning meditation and breathing techniques to help cope with stressful work environments.

Speaking Out at the State Capitol for Safe Patient Limits *

Union members in mid April gathered in Hartford to talk directly to lawmakers deliberating a proposed law reigning in mandatory overtime forced on nurses. Click here for a collage of photos from the coordinated lobby day in support of the legislative initiative.
